ND Trails Conference is June 18-19

The 2nd annual North Dakota Trails Conference is being held by the North Dakota Parks and Recreation Department (NDRPD) and North Dakota Recreation and Parks Association (NDRPA) on June 18-19, at Bismarck's Ramkota Hotel.

The state's trail users, managers and advocates are invited to attend the conference which addresses non-motorized and motorized trail opportunities in North Dakota. Topics will include: accessibility, marketing/events, grant funding, trail signage, and trail planning.

The conference kicks off at 10 a.m. on June 18, with a welcome from NDRPD Recreation Division Manager Matt Gardner and NDRPA President Wayne Beyer. Guest speakers include: Recreation Accessibility Consultants, LLC's John McGovern and author Scott Kudelka.

The conference is free, but pre-registration is required by June 11 and can be done online at www.ndtrailsconference2013.eventbrite.com. Information about the event can be found online at www.parkrec.nd.gov, or by calling 701-355-4458 or emailing clearfour@bitnet.net.
