The annual Winter Expo is set for Saturday, Feb. 9 at Turtle River State Park from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Most of the event will take place at the park's newly renovated Chalet. Activities include:

- Cabela's is on site from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Winter clothing options and choosing the right pair of binoculars is the feature of Cabela's presentation.
- Stop in and chat with Sandy from the Grand Cities Bird Club about feeding common winter yard birds and winter birding in general. At 1 p.m. the "Feeding Frenzy" takes place as participants make suet bird feeders to take home.
- The Scoop from Larimore will have snacks, hot drinks, and food available for sale during the day.

There is no charge for the event, but the North Dakota State Parks' annual vehicle pass or $5 daily pass is required for entrance into the park.
