Saturday Night at the Hall

The sixth annual Saturday Night at the Hall is at Icelandic State Park on Saturday, June 7. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. in Akra Hall located near the Pioneer Heritage Center at Icelandic State Park. Sneaky Wild Oats will be the featured entertainment playing easy-listening jazz from 7 to 8 p.m. Make sure to stay all the way through the show for some refreshments and delicious kuchen catered by Karen's Kuchen!

Bartunek's Sneaky Wild Oats performs jazz standards. Musicians include Peggy Bartunek (keyboard and vocals), John Bartunek (bass), and Dave Jeffrey (drums). The jazz group was featured on Prairie Public TV's "Prairie Musicians" and performs monthly in the Jazz Series at the Grand Forks Canad Inn's 'L Bistro.

Dessert and refreshments are available after the show at 8 p.m. Karen's Kuchen is catering the event with almond and plain kuchen. Coffee and lemonade is also available. Since the Northeastern North Dakota Heritage Association is hosting Saturday Night Hall as a membership drive, the event will be free this year! There will also be a one-time $15 discount on a lifetime membership for this special event for people interested in joining the Northeastern North Dakota Heritage Association. You won't want to miss out on the great entertainment featuring Sneaky Wild Oats and some delicious kuchen!

The event is free of charge in accordance with a daily pass, annual pass, or a NENDHA membership. Saturday Night at the Hall is held at Akra Hall within the Pioneer Heritage Center Complex. Icelandic State Park is located 5 ½ miles west of Cavalier, ND on State Highway 5. To attend the program, drive into the main park entrance; do not follow the construction detour signs. The event will be held indoors, rain or shine.
