

Levis Backcountry Yurt Guidelines & Policies - Cross Ranch State Park

Yurt Location: Approximately 4 miles north of the main park. Hike, snowshoe or cross country ski in only.

Note: No running water or electricity at yurt location

Items Provided At the Levis Backcountry Yurt

- Double futon bunked to a single bed (sleeps 3)
- 2 chairs
- Table and bench seating
- 3 propane lanterns with extra mantels
- Garbage can & garbage bags in yurt
- Ash barrel located outside of yurt
- Wood burning stove and firewood
- Fire supplies: matches, newspaper, fire starter, firewood
- Vault toilet located near Yurt
- Contact numbers posted in case of an emergency

Users Responsibility and Important Information

- Users are responsible to pack in & out supplies including trash at the end of their stay
- Park staff will assist users back to the park in the event of an emergency or severe weather
- Users are responsible for having a personal cell phone to reach park staff in the event of an emergency
- A map of the trails to the Yurt will be provided prior to first rental night
- Park staff will provide instructions on wood burning stove operation and use
- Users are recommended to allow adequate time to make their way to and from the Yurt before dark (particularly during winter months), if this is not possible please let park staff know in advance
 - o If users are unable to reach their destination before dark please call park staff to inform them that you made it safely
- For your safety, stay on designated trails when traveling to or from the yurt